

I signed registered on the no call list to avoid the very aggressive and annoying telemarketing calls. If I want something I can call them, as far as phone service, if I cancel I shouldn't have to put up with their constant calling for 12 to 14 months. I cancelled for a reason "poor service, too high rates, etc. I applaud my state for starting the no call list. Wisconsin is a leader in consumer rights.